MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel

25X1 SUBJECT : [REDACTED]

25X1 1. [REDACTED] a W-6 chauffeur, became eligible for optional retirement in April 1968. In May 1967 he requested an extension until October 1969, when he would have 20-years' service with this Agency. His retention was recommended by the Chief, Logistics Services Division and myself. In August 1967 [REDACTED] was advised by the Director of Personnel that an extension had been approved until April 1969. Mr. [REDACTED] however, still has a strong desire to complete 20-years' Agency service.

25X1 2. [REDACTED] performance continues to be characterized by exceptional proficiency. As a W-6 he would probably be replaced by a W-5 chauffeur if retired. However, his retirement would create a vacancy in the ranks of the chauffeurs which would have to be filled by recruitment. There is currently one chauffeur vacancy with two candidates in the "pipeline." [REDACTED] has been qualified by the Office of Medical Services for his assigned duties.

25X1 3. In view of the foregoing, I recommend that [REDACTED] be retained until October 1969.
